

Summary of titration curves equivalence point: the reactants have been added in equivalent proportions so no excess of either.

pH = pKa exactly half-way to the equivalence point of a titration the buffer zone is the pH range at which the buffer solution is effective, indicated by

